- In domestic help positions in private homes (e.g., child care, elder care, gardener, chauffeur)
- As pedicab or rolling chair drivers or operators
- In any position in the adult entertainment industry
- In positions that are substantially commission-based and thus do not guarantee that participants will be paid minimum wage

- Positions with staffing agencies, unless the placements meet the following three criteria:
 - Participants must be employees of and paid by the staffing agencies
 - Staffing agencies must provide full-time, primary, on-site supervision of the participants
 - Staffing agencies must effectively control the work sites e.g. have hands-on management responsibility for the participants
- Any position that Janus International deems as non-seasonable/non temporary in accordance with the J-1 Work & Travel program Regulations. The typical Summer Work Travel job is in a seasonal/resort area in a seasonal business. Janus International may request additional documentation to prove the seasonal and temporary nature of a self placement location.
- Janus International reserves the right to deny approval of any self placed job placement that is deemed by Janus International as unsuitable for the Work & Travel program, inconsistent with the cultural exchange goals of the program, or a risk to the J-1 participant's health, safety and welfare.

Janus International does not outline prohibited job placement areas for J1 students, although in the best interest of the safety and welfare of our participants, we do pay extra attention and verification to jobs in some areas. Self-Placed jobs will likely not be approved in one of the areas where Janus International doesn't represent J1 participants. This includes, but is not limited, to big metropolitan areas, resort towns with limited suitable, affordable housing, and any location where we do not place J1 participants. Examples include, but are not limited to New York, Chicago, Miami, Martha's Vineyard, Nantucket, North Dakota, etc.
